

Roland Verbruggen is a Dutch singer/guitarist who's inspired by Eddie Cochran at a very young age. He performs all of Eddie's songs dressed like Eddie and plays his special prepared Gretsch, which is an exact copy of Eddie's guitar.

Just like Eddie, Roland is a very good guitarist who plays all Eddie's licks just like he did.

Roland also plays upright bass, drums and loves to record on his multitrack-recorder...

He's a well known performer in The Netherlands and Belgium and did gigs all over Europe and played with several bands....
